Our Volunteers Are Priceless

All throughout the year, many individuals give of their time and talent to ensure the mission of The Arc is fulfilled. Our work of empowering individuals with disabilities to build relationships, gain independence, and achieve their full potential would not be as impactful without our volunteers. This is a salute to all of those who believe “Doing Good, Does You Good!”
The Arc of Evansville’s Annual Fund Gift Club Members

July 1, 2018 – June 30, 2019

Every dollar donors give is used to impact the lives of individuals with disabilities. We thank our Gift Club Members for their generosity and for putting their values into action for changing the life of another. Those individuals named below participate in our gift club because of their desire for individuals with disabilities to be empowered for building relationships, gaining independence, and achieving their full potential. Donors provide individuals with disabilities opportunities to experience success in their lives.

First Pitch, Play Ball

On August 24, Andrew Heinlin, a client of The Arc of Evansville, threw out the first pitch at the Evansville Otter’s home baseball game. Andrew, who was honored to be asked to do this task, receives services from The Arc of Evansville’s Community Job Link Program to assist him in being successful as an employee of the Evansville Otters.

The Community Job Link Program offers job coaching and follow-along services for individuals with disabilities seeking community employment or those already working in the community. For more information about this program, please contact Jack Maxwell, Manager of Community Job Link Program, at (812) 492-1204.

Nathan Breeden, client of The Arc of Evansville, and Joe Langerak, Board Chair of The Arc of Evansville, are shown welcoming guests of the 2019 Annual Fund Gift Club Donor Appreciation Event.

Shown are Jack Maxwell and Andrew Heinlin.

Strategic Philanthropy

One way for individuals 70½ or older to make a donation to The Arc of Evansville is from their individual retirement account (IRA) with a qualified charitable distribution. When you donate in this manner, you have the ability to transfer up to $100,000 from your IRA directly to The Arc of Evansville without being subject to income taxes on the distribution. Take action today, and consult with your trusted financial advisor about ways you can support The Arc of Evansville and ensure generations to come reach their full potential.

For additional information, please contact Denise Seibert Townsend at (812) 428-4500, ext. 310 or visit our website at www.arcofevansville.org.

Generate Greater Impact

Did you know that when you join our monthly giving program, your monthly gift supports The Arc’s most immediate needs for assisting individuals with disabilities to reach their personal goals? Visit our website at www.arcofevansville.org or call Kayla Schmitt at (812) 428-4500, ext. 309 to join today.
